Science Competition

From September, each class will have their own science dictionary where new scientific vocabulary will be recorded. These books will be taken with pupils as they progress through the school; pupils should be able to see how their scientific vocabulary develops.

We are looking to our pupils to design a front cover for these dictionaries. All entries need to be submitted by Friday 30th June, with digital entries sent to info@brook.dudley.sch.uk.

I look forward to choosing our winners!
