What is Autumn?

This half term we are learning all about ourselves, our families, our homes and Autumn. The children will be exploring the world using our senses. They will also be creating their self-portrait and talking about their family; who is our family? What is a family? They will be looking at their homes and comparing the with a variety of different homes. The children will explore a variety of materials and their uses. We will be focusing on our school values of Respect and Pride and will be learning routines, rules and expectations of behaviour.
